3. There were a few major themes to which the congressmen kept returning:

-- Technology Transfer. Rep. Young asked whether the current technology transfer mechanism was adequate, and, if not, how it could be improved. LGEN Williams replied that it could certainly be improved, but, given the nature of our society and the realities of international economic competition, he didn't have any specific ideas at that moment. Rep. Young also asked for examples of the "illegal" methods used by the Soviets and others to acquire advanced technology. [redacted]
